INDEX TO VOL. XXIV.

(NEW SERIES.)

ARTICLES AND SUBJECTS.

A.

Achilli and Newman [Finlason's Report, &c.], 401—424. Delicacy of the subject, 401. Its moral importance, 402. Its effects in connexion with the Roman system, 403. Life of Achilli, 404—411. How far did the Church connive at Achilli's life, 413. General aspect of the question, 414—424.

C.

Church Festivals and their Household Words [Monthly Packet, &c.], 385—400. Household influence of the Middle Age Church, 385. Its terms and titles national and domestic, 386. Instances, 386—400.

Convocation, Recent Election of Proctors to [Pearce's Law of Convocation, &c.], 342—384. The analogy of nature in favour of revivals, 342. Convocation no novelty, 343. Election of Proctors in 1852, 344. Its forms, 345. Revived attention to them, 346, 347. Mr. Pearce's book, 348. Summoning Convocation, 349—351. The Licensed Curates question, 352, 353. Division of dioceses, 354. Election by archdeaconries, 355—357. Mode of election, &c., 358, 359. Right of debate, 360, 361. Contested elections, 362. Preponderance of elections in favour of Synodical Action, 363—368. Chichester election, 369. Winchester election, 370—374. Importance of the elections, 375—384.

J.

Japan [Mac Farlane's Japan, &c.], 447—472. European ignorance about Japan, 447. Exclusiveness of Japan, ibid. American expedition, 448. Jesuit Missions, 449. History of European intercourse, 450—456. Its geographical character, 457. Its government, 458, 459. Its religion, 460—465. Its possible evangelization, 466—469. Social state of Japan, 470—472.

M.

Mary Queen of Scots [Mignet's History, &c.], 20—80. Chivalrous dispute on Mary's character, 20. Her fascinations, 21. Mignet's facts at issue with his conclusions, 22. Mary's education, 23. General profligacy of the French Court, 24. Mary's life, 25. Her character, history, and general reflections 26—80.

P.

Pascal and Ultramontanism [Maynard's Edition, and Refutation, of Les Provinciales], 176—243. M. Maynard's method, 176. Its dangers, 177, and style, 178. Mode of answering Pascal twofold, 179. Alleged unfairness of Pascal, 180. His quotations, 181—186. Easy casuistry, 186—190. The doctrine of Probabilism, 191—194. Bauny and Escobar, 195—198. P. Barry, 199, 200. Practice, 201. Penitence, 202—204. Confession made popular, 205. Contrition, 206. Genuine view of the Jesuit morality, 207—243.

Pfeiffer, Madame [Voyage to Iceland, &c.], 255—282. Qualities necessary to a traveller, 255—258. Madame P.'s characteristics, 259. What she has achieved, 260. Her self-possession, 261, 262. Indifference to religion, 263. Her voyage to Iceland, 269—281. Her plans for future travel, 282.

Poetry, Recent [Works of Moir and Reade, &c.], 283—341. Various forms of the poetical character, 283, 286. Mr. Moir and Mr. Reade, 287. Mr. Moir's life, 287—291. Criticism of their collected works, 291—341.

S.

Seats, open, in Churches [Oliphant's Law of Pews, &c.], 81—136. Freedom of worship, 81. Opposed by pews, 82. Trouble of Church structures, 83. Common Prayer and Sacraments, 84. Normal idea of a Church, 84, 85. Churchwardens, 86. Law and history of sittings in churches, 87. Pew, open seats, &c. &c. 87—136.

Sellon, Miss [Tracts by Mr. Spurrell, Miss Sellon, Bishop of Exeter, &c.], 151—175. The subject distasteful, 152. Who are open to criticism, 153. Superiors and inferiors, 154—158. Miss S.'s Rule of Obedience, 159. The principles which it involves—its dangers, &c., 160—175.

Shaftesbury, Lord, the Chevalier Bunsen, and the Bible Society [The Record Newspaper, &c.], 137—150. Lord Shaftesbury and the Bible Society's Anniversary, 137. The Tractarian School, 138. Their alleged tenderness to infidelity, 138, 139. Chevalier Bunsen a sceptic, 140. His treatment of scriptural statements, 141. His estimate of Ewald, 142—144. Lord Shaftesbury's dishonesty, 144—146. Dr. Pusey's Letter to Lord Shaftesbury, in the Morning Chronicle, 147—150.

Stonehenge [Mr. Herbert's 'Cyclops Christianus,' &c.], 1—19. Historical criticism, 1. Mr. Herbert, 2, 3. The Druids, and alleged antiquity of Stonehenge, 4. Mr. Herbert's objections to the received accounts—he contends that they are post-Roman works, 4—19.

W.

Words, Study of [Trench on Study of Words], 425—446. Accuracy of language, 425. Selection of words, 426. Its educational and moral purposes, 427, 428. General reflections on the value and importance of the study of words, 430—446.

SHORTER NOTICES OF BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS.

JULY.—Wilson's Sacra Privata—English Alice — Gilbert Arnold — The Divine Master — Rymer Jones's Natural History of Animals—Instrumenta Ecclesiastica (Second Series)—Conquerors of the New World — Smith's Inquiry into Catholic Matters — Dowell's Catechism on Church Services — Jubilee Year of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel—Hoare's Ecclesiastical History—Pott's Lectures — Oremus — Trevilian on Rev. xiii. 18—Caswall, &c. on Synodical Action—Scott's Reply to Goode—Flower's ditto—Jebb's Plea for Cathedrals—How to reclaim lost population?—Griffiths' Translations from the Sanskrit—Emphatic New Testament—Hirscher on a New Reformation — Coxe's Sympathies of the Continent — Eclipse of Faith — Restoration of Belief—Evenings at Sackville College—Neale's Lectures on Church Difficulties—Johns's History of Spain—Our New Parish—Our Doctor—Davies and Vaughan's Translation of Plato's Republic—Archdeacon Wilberforce's Charge —Sermons by T. J. Smith, C. C. Spencer, Codd, Steel, Skinner, &c.

OCTOBER.—Masters's New Biographical Series — Gresley's Sermon on Church Music — Bennett's Letter to Lord John Russell—Harington's Succession of Bishops — The Christian Student - Sermons by Harness and Hale—Life Assurance—Rounds and Catches —The Song School, &c.—Strife for the Mastery—Sunlight in the Clouds—Bishop Forbes on the Nicene Creed—Stories and Catechising, illustrative of the Collects—Williams's Biography of Mr. Suckling—Uncle Tom's Cabin—Walks after Wild Flowers—Evans's Sermons — Cyclopædia Bibliographica — Stark's History of the Bishopric of Lincoln — Laurence's Essay on Confession, &c.—Romanism, an Apostate Church—Burton's Falconry—Burney Prize Essay—Bishop of Oxford on S. P. G. Jubilee—Sisters of Mercy —The Coming Man—Benson's Sermon on Christian Education — Browne's Letter to Mr. Walpole—Renovation of Cathedral Institutions—Barter's Socialism and Infidelity —Cole's Reflective Letter—Six Sermons on Christian Union—Stretton's Guide—School Inspectors' Report—Quakerism — Mozley's Kings of England—Hymnal—Landmarks of Ancient History — Norrisian Essay —Anticleptic Gradus—Butler's Sermons—Spark's Lecture—Thiersch's History of the Christian Church — Fraser on Convocations — Bucks Architectural Society—Sermon by Rev. J. P. Marriott.

R. CLAY, PRINTER, BREAD STREET HILL.